

Sheldon J. Kukafka, M.D., FACC

Cardiology: Nuclear Cardiology, Echocardiography.

D Sheldon J. Kukafka, M.D., F.A.C.C., graduated from the State University of New York Health Science Center at Brooklyn College of Medicine, Downstate Medical Center in 1992. He received his medical residency training at Orlando Regional Medical Center in Florida, and served as the Chief Medical Resident in 1995. His Cardiology Fellowship training was received from the Sister of Charity Healthcare System, St. Vincent's Campus, NY and served as the Chief Cardiology Fellow in 2000. Dr. Kukafka is an Invasive Cardiologist practicing at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital and St. Peter's University Hospital in New Brunswick, NJ. He is Board Certified in Cardiology, and Nuclear Cardiology. Dr. Kukafka performs both cardiac catheterization and transesophageal echocardiography.

Aside from his Cardiology Practice, Dr. Kukafka enjoys spending time with his family and is an automobile enthusiast.